In Memoriam

"We understand death for the first time when he puts his hand upon one whom we love." --Mme. de Staël.

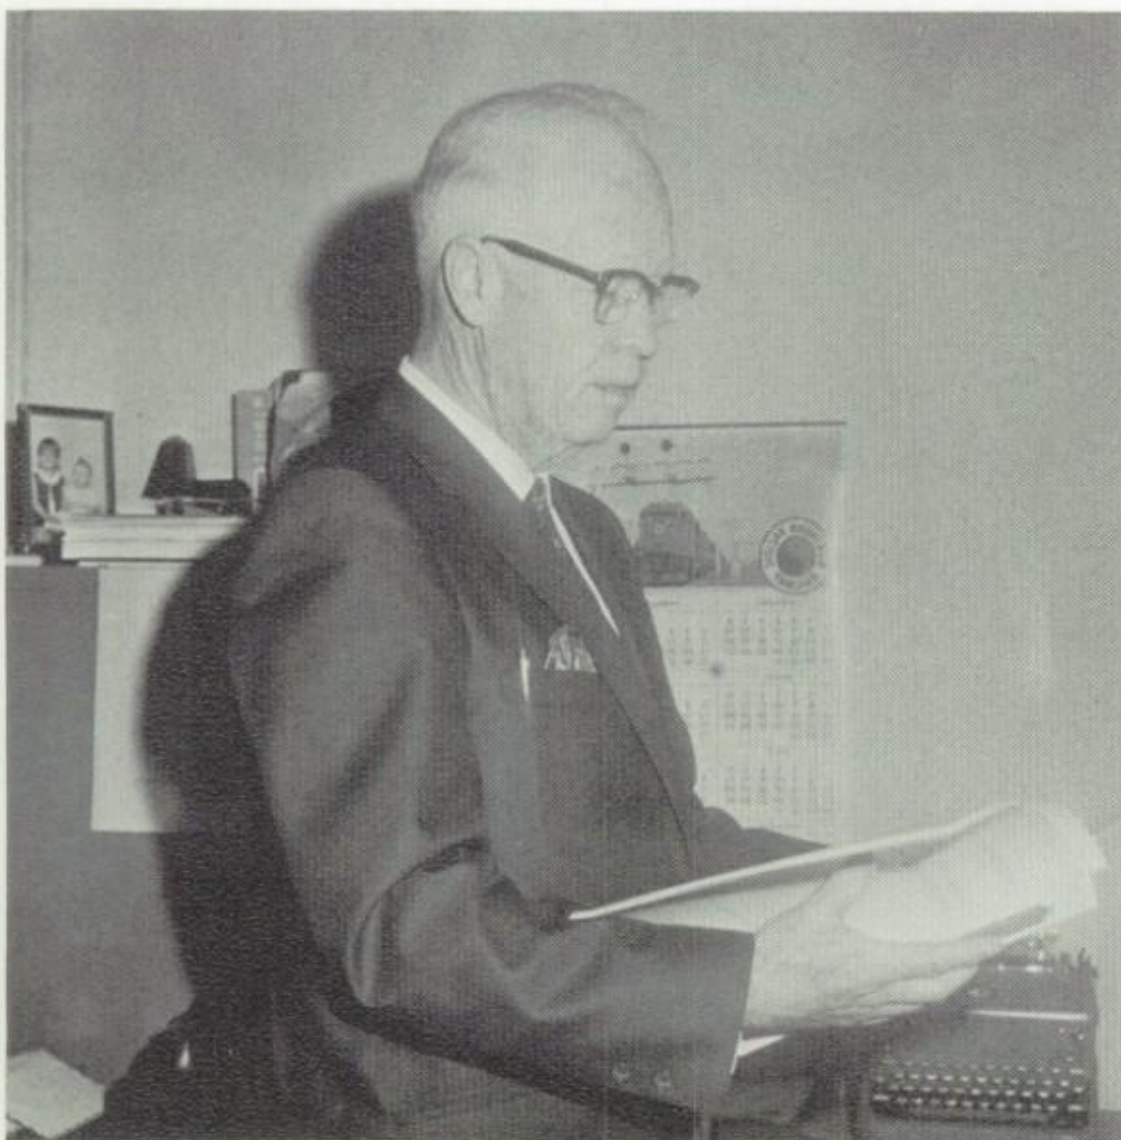

Gary M. Sexton, a junior at Lyle High School, was fatally injured in a sledding accident on the evening of Tuesday, January 30, 1968. Gary's quiet nature and ever-pleasant disposition made him well liked by all the students of the school. It is, therefore, with honor and sincerity, that this 1968 COUGAR is made in memory of him.

DIRECTORS

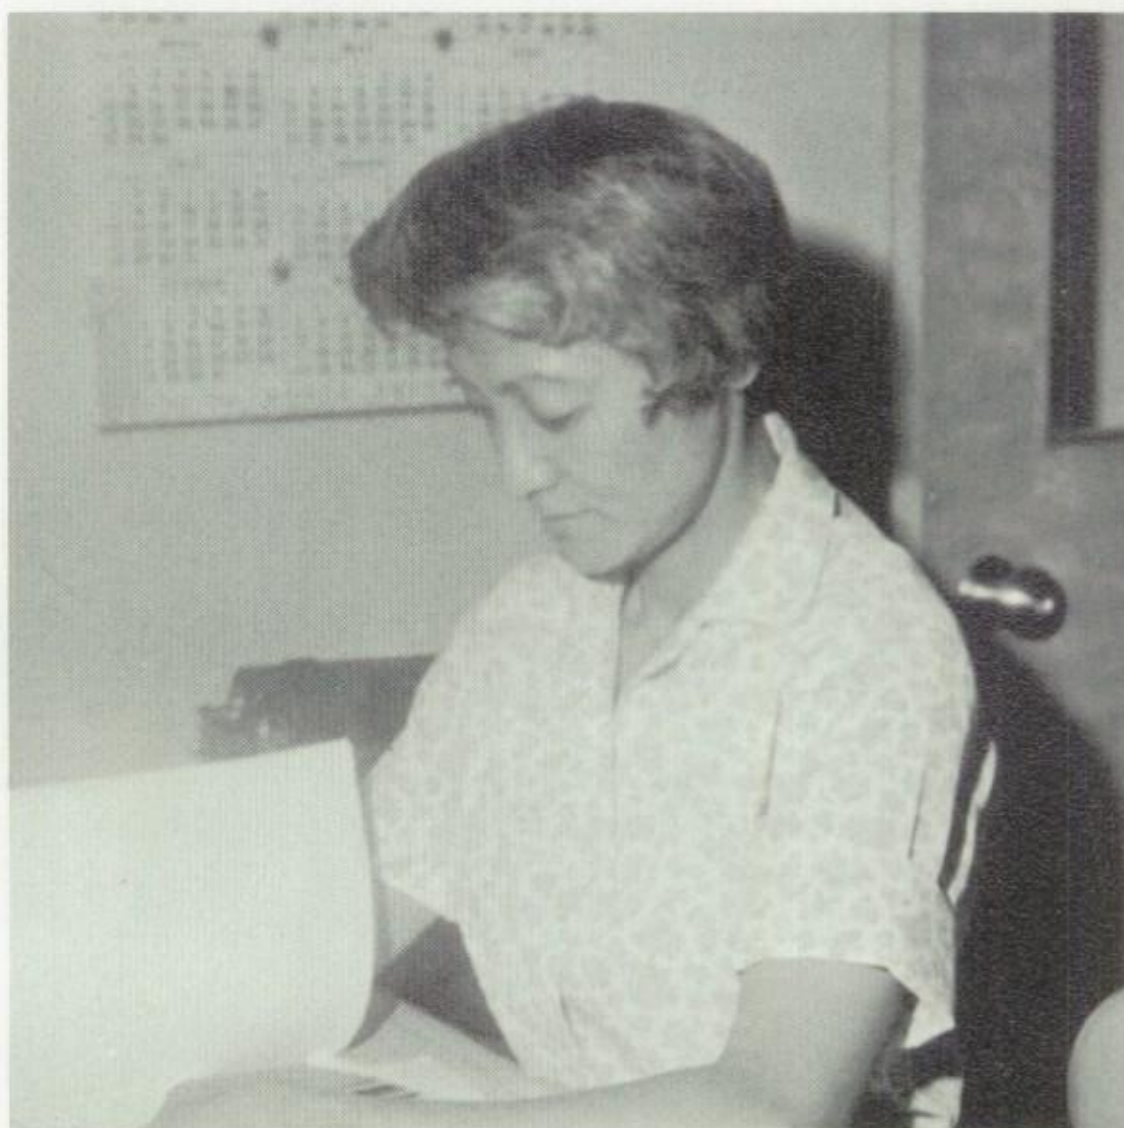

Mr. George Goodman

Mr. George Goodman, Superintendent of the Lyle Public Schools, has served the district in this capacity for seven years. Under his leadership, the Lyle district has grown and prospered and has gained statewide recognition for its curriculum.

Much of Mr. Goodman's activity this year has centered around the building of the new Junior High and Shop in addition to the regular work necessary to maintain the school district.

Mrs. Suma Bullock

Mrs. Suma Bullock is Clerk of the Lyle School District. Her duties are many and varied. "Suma" as she is affectionately called by the students, not only performs secretarial duties for the district, but she also does work of this nature for the high school. She can also be found acting as a "chief cook and bottle washer," "sounding board," "counselor," "telephone operator," "chaperone," "cheering leader for all athletic events," and many, many other things.

School Board

The Lyle School Board of Directors has the grave responsibility of managing the Lyle School District. This year was an especially interesting one because of the construction of the new Junior High and Shop Buildings. Meetings, finances and the selection of personnel are only a few of their many duties.

Mr. Dennie Ross

Mr. Dennie Ross is the Lyle High School Principal. He was the Senior Class Adviser, the Girls' Volleyball Coach, and the Adviser of the National Honor Society.

In addition to the regular Principal's duties of taking care of attendance, managing the school's money, counseling students, and generally overseeing all activities, Mr. Ross also accompanied the students on many field trips and represented Lyle High School at YVIAA meetings.

Lyle High Faculty

MR. FRANCIS STINE--Algebra I and II, Geometry, Senior Math, Junior Class Adviser.

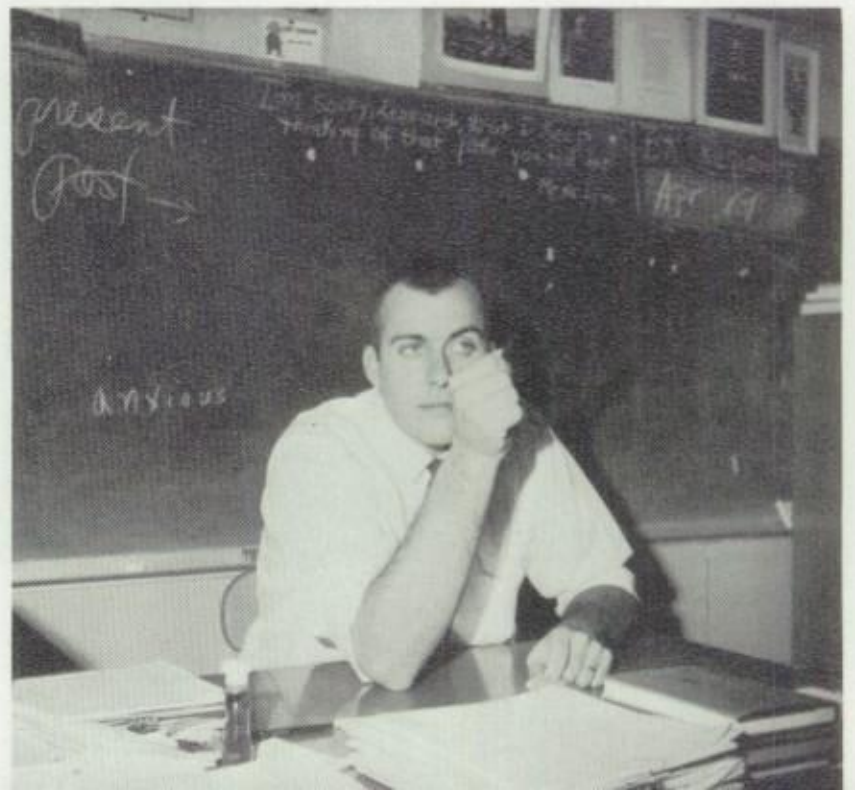

MR. F.A. BUTLER--Wood Shop, Metal Shop, Advanced Wood Shop, Jr. High Wood Shop, Drivers Training, General Math, Sophomore Class Adviser.

MR. LARRY FROWNFELTER--English I, II, III, and IV, Latin II, Vocabulary and Drama, Football Coach, Assistant Basketball Coach, Baseball Coach.

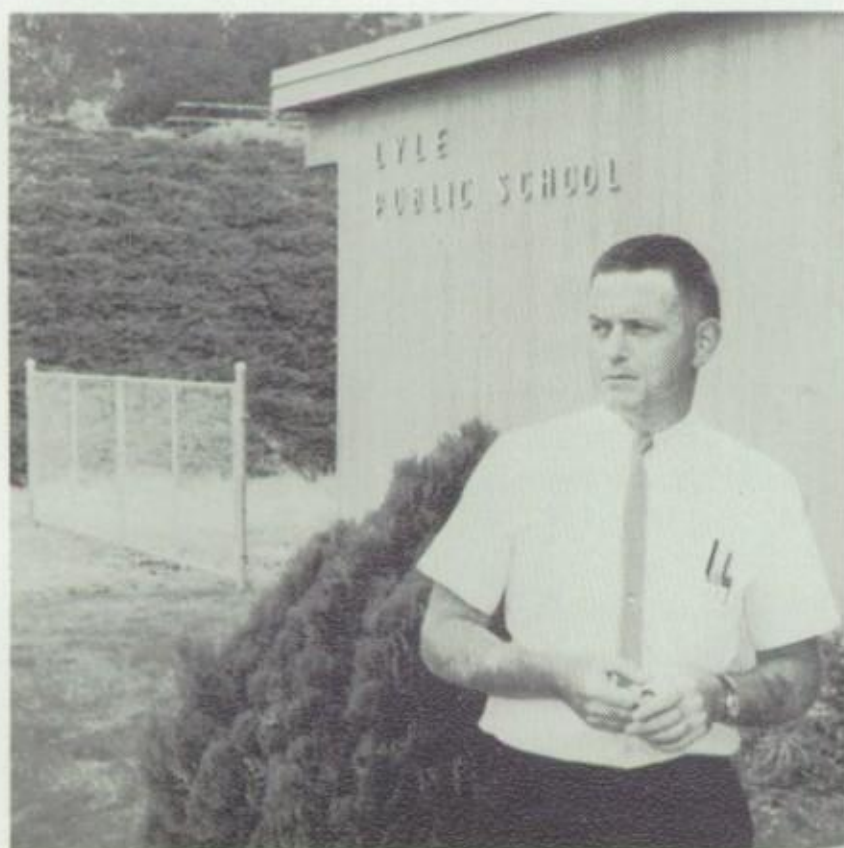

MRS. SANDRA PFLUGRATH--Typing I and II, Advanced Shorthand, Bookkeeping, Speech and Journalism, Girls' League, Pep Club and Year-book Adviser.

"A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops."

--Henry Adams

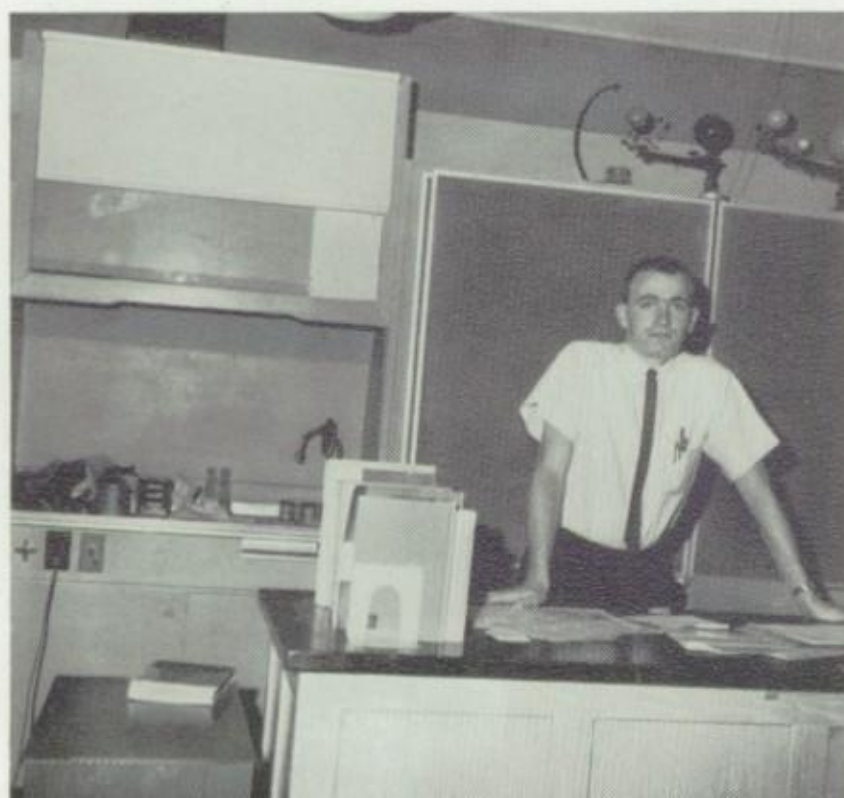

MR. JIM TITUS--World Problems, U. S. History, World History, Washington State History, Boys' P. E., Athletic Director, Cross-Country Coach, Basketball Coach, Track Coach.

MRS. DOROTHY IMRIE--Home Economics, Advanced Home Ec., Jr. High Home Ec., Girls' P. E., Art.

MRS. JOAN TITUS--French I and II, Library.

MR. RON GRAHAM--Biology I and II, Earth Science, Physics, General Math, Assistant Football Coach, Freshman Class Adviser.

"Stage" Crew

Mr. Larry Sorensen, who serves as head Bus Mechanic, can usually be found assisting the school in any way that is necessary. He is a favorite chaperone among the students.

Mr. Bill White is the head custodian and an indispensable member of the "Crew." Not only does Bill drive bus, but he takes charge of heating the buildings and keeping things in "ship shape."

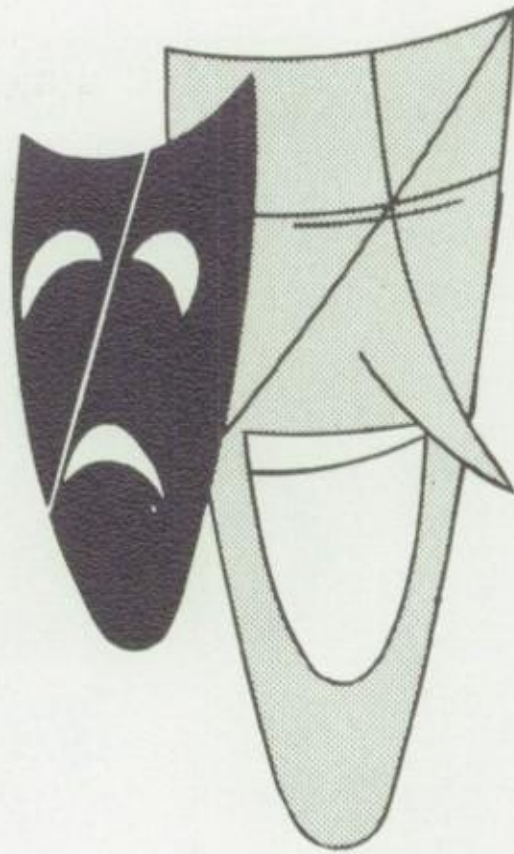

Mrs. Vivian Rinke and Mrs. Clara Hunter, our school cooks, can pride themselves in the fine meals they prepare.

Mr. Fred Hickman, the night custodian, is responsible for the fine condition of our school each day.

Learning tackle techniques is an important part of football practice.

Lyle High School's football season was cut short because of injuries that plagued the team forcing them to cancel the remainder of their football schedule after playing five games.

The Cougars lost to Cascade Locks 31-6, to Gaston 15-0, to the Stevenson Jayvees 12-6, to Maupin 32-12, and to Colton 65-0.

At this point, hampered by injuries and with no replacements, the Cougars cancelled their remaining games with the Vancouver Deaf School, Corbett, Boardman, and Klickitat.

The Lyle Cross-Country team did lots of traveling as they covered many miles in foot races as well as on the road. The team attended races in The Dalles, North Marion, Ellensburg, Vancouver and Trout Lake.

Here the boys are shown as they race along the Lyle course in competition with the Trout Lake Mustangs.

Coach Titus always manages a few words of encouragement before any big meet: Okay, guys, how about it? This time when they say "GO" I want to see all of you take off in the same direction!

Early every fall the Cougar Club focuses energy on its big money-making project, the Spaghetti Feed. For the tenth year, the combined enthusiasm of members and adults netted a big profit for athletics. The boys' mothers worked during basketball season to hold cake raffles at home games, the proceeds of which go toward a Lettermen's Banquet held near the end of the spring sports season.

Present and prospective Cougar Club members served the many diners at the annual Spaghetti dinner. Shown at the left are Monte Gunter and Jim Akita who were caught off guard eyeing the garlic bread.

This fall for the first time, the girls launched an all-out attack on the gridiron as football players. Flag football, which was often interpreted as "tackle" football by the girls, was furiously played with four teams, each team representing a class. At the season's end and after many bruises and blows, the Sophomores took championship honors with Juniors, Freshmen and Seniors following.

It was an interesting battle all season as five teams participated in intramural football action. The tied standing between teams Two and Four was broken in a playoff game when Ray Akita trapped Greg Graves in the end zone for a safety, giving Team Two the championship title. At right, Jim Akita shields the ball as he runs for a touchdown and Team Four huddles for last minute instructions.

Kim Jones and Kay Hylton select pictures to be trimmed down to size.

Paper Staff

COUGAR TIMES is the newspaper publication of Lyle High School. The paper came out once a week thanks to the many efforts of the staff.

The newspaper staff put in many long hours preparing the weekly publication which showed originality and talent in its use of color, layout techniques, and complete coverage of the school events.

Jeanne Marx, Editor, can be seen preparing the weekly editorial.

Kim Jones, Asst. Ed., and Donna Dietz can be seen preparing stories.

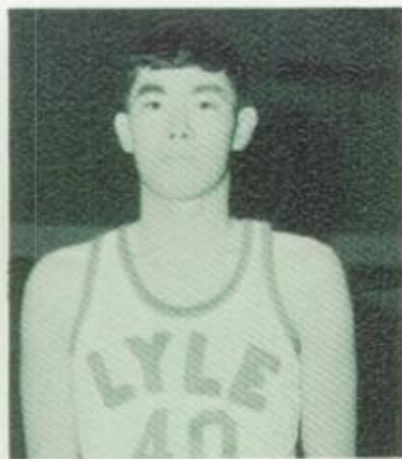

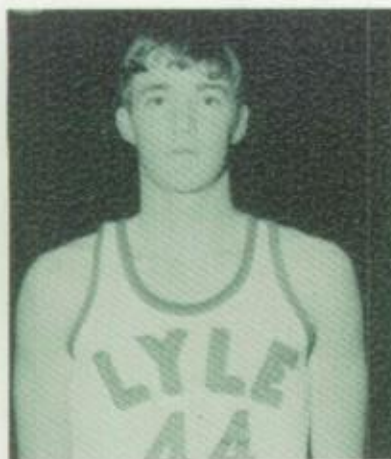

Marilyn Williams, Donita Wing, and Teleia Gray served as typists.

Varsity Basketball

The Lyle Cougars finished the basketball season in a 4 and 15 win-loss situation. The Cougar cagers were lacking in height, but they had the hustle and determination which made the games exciting. The closeness of the games can be noted in three overtimes and one double overtime in which the Cougars played.

The Cougars placed 4th in league play with a 2 and 6 win-loss record.

As a basketball rather than a football activity, Homecoming '68 presented LHS with a new experience. Seniors planned events around a theme borrowed from the Romans, "All Roads Lead to Lyle." Daily skits, spirit blocs, the bonfire and the pep rally were aimed at sparking enthusiasm. Alumni were honored at a Saturday evening coffee hour. Then came the culmination of the week and the season, the game between the Cougars and their long-time rivals the Klickitat Vandals. Half-time featured the crowning of Miss Beverly Bullock as 1968 Homecoming Queen. She was presented with a crown and red roses by retiring queen Debra Kyle and emcee Dick Bryan.

Lyle High School's varsity yell squad attended the annual cheerleading conference held at Central Washington State College in Ellensburg. It was there they learned many new yells and routines which they exhibited during football and basketball season. The varsity rally squad put in many hours of practice and work, not only in cheering, but in sign painting, pep assembly planning, and spirit creating.

The B squad yell leaders were selected in October. Their yells demonstrated spirit, practice, and originality. It was their enthusiasm that helped to lead the B Squad team through a fine season.

In early 1968, construction was begun on the new Junior High and High School Shop. The pictures at left show the ground breaking for the new Jr. High. The shop addition was the first of the two buildings to have the walls up. The Junior High is located below the High School and the Shop is to the east of the high school.

Ground Breaking

As the construction continued, the Junior High rapidly took shape. To the right we see the building with just the frame work assembled. Not too long after that, the floor had been poured and the roof and walls completed.

As the school year came to a close, both the shop and the Junior High were well along in the construction process. Some of the interior work had been started and by the time school reconvenes in the fall, the two buildings should have the finishing touches which will form a fine-looking educational complex for Lyle.

Junior-Senior Prom

Queen Lona Nichols and King Dick Bryan served as reigning royalty.

This year marked the first year the Junior-Senior Prom was held away from Lyle High School. Eddie May's Inn at Hood River, Oregon, hosted the yearly event. The beautiful buffet dinner, the reading of the Senior Class Will and Prophecy, the presentation of the senior skit, and the presentation of gifts to the teachers, as well as the dance, highlighted the activities of the evening.

Dancing was enjoyed by all the students who attended the Jr. -Sr. Prom. The Bob Baker Orchestra from Portland provided the music with lots of variety in numbers.

A buffet dinner was served to the Promattenders before the dancing. There were many beautifully decorated salads, relish plates, and two main dishes.

Mothers' Tea

Gigantic psychedelic blossoms carried out the "Alice in Wonderland Tea Party" theme of the annual Mother's Tea. Junior high and high school Home Ec students and the Girls' League together presented the style show and tea.

Each girl entered the fantasyland through the trunk of a make-believe tree.

Sandy Simpson, Sue Hunt, and Nancy Hunter display their creations. Many of the girls chose to make school and sports outfits.

"Everything that has a beginning comes to an end."
--Quintilian

As twelve years of school comes to a close, Delese Kendrick and Chuck Moore the Junior Honor Graduates, lead the Graduates down the aisle to the beginning of new experiences.

The donning of caps and gowns is always an exciting part of any graduation exercise. Here Gerry, Jim, and Darrell make their preparations for the big event.

Commencement

Marsha Williams, Lyle High School's Valedictorian, delivered her address to the people in attendance at the 1968 Commencement ceremonies.

The girls have the usual amount of primping to do before graduation. Fixing collars, combing hair, fastening honor cords, and excited gibberish were all present as the girls prepared.

Salutatorian, Bev Bullock, welcomed the parents and friends to the ceremonies and gave her address to the people and her class.

Mr. Henry Bonham, Lyle School Board Member, handed out the diplomas.

Mr. Bledsoe, State. Rep. from Ellensburg, was the guest speaker.

Marsha Williams--Valedictory Trophy, Grange Scholarship, Honors to Whitman. Gerry Migaki--Citizenship Award, PTA Scholarship, Bill West Memorial. Bev Bullock-Salutatory Trophy, Citizenship Award, PTA Scholarship.

The recessional draws to a close the 1968 Commencement ceremonies and brings the beginning of many new things to come for the Lyle Graduates.

Awards and Achievements

Mike Vorce--Basketball Captain, Track High Point Man, Baseball High Batting Average, District Hurdles Champion, Social Studies Award. Chuck Moore--Football Captain, Pentathlon Winner, Basketball Mr. Hustle.

Eddie Goodman--Social Studies Award. Rick Knowles--Mathematics Award. Linda Simpson--Crisco Homemaking Award. Marsha Williams--Betty Crocker Homemaker Award, Social Studies Award.

Andy Nichols--Football Mr. Hustle, Football Inspirational. Gerry Migaki--Basketball Inspirational. Greg Graves--Baseball Captain.
